From the Westchester (Pa) Record. A New Whig Song.

Some time since, the Richmond Enquirer, in commenting on a published letter written by Henry Clay to some of his political friends, styled it in derision-" a blast from the Bu gle," and, affected to consider it a summons which the Whigs of the Union would not venture to disobey. These remarks induced the following song by Hon. Francis James, which was sung by the request of the Westchester Clay Club. "ABLAST FROM THE BUGLE."

Tune- STAU-SPANGLED BANNER. "A blast from the Bugle "-say, heard ye the sound. As it rolled from the West, over mountain and

T was a signal for Patriots, the country around To make for the contest a glorious rally.

Regard, then, its call, ye Whigs, one and all! Prepare for the conflict, to conquer or fall.

"A blast from the Bugle"—oh! list to its strain, As it echoes in thanders, from Georgia to Maine. Like the trump of a chief-blown to gather his clan Twill arouse every freeman, though heavy his slumbers; And urge him to deeds well befitting the man Who deserves to be rank'd in our army of num

For we want but the true, who will dare and will do-Whatever to honor and right shall be due;

When "a blast from the Bugte," shall stir up our In lowland and highland, from Georgia to Maine.

No craven we wish, to respond to its call; And oh! may its loud notes, no TRAITORS awaken But deep be his sleep, as the depths of his fall, Let him breathe on, neglected, degraded, forsaken Let his name fade away, from the light of the day, And the honors which once encircled his way :

While "a blast from the Bugle"-ne'er issued in vain--Shill inspirit each freeman from Georgia to Maine

List! "ablast from the Bugle"-hark! hark! how ir peals;

To the rescue ye gallants! fall-fall in for Harry The pride of the West-him whose candor reveals Alf, all that he is-then I pray you don't tarry, But come to his aid, who has never betrayed A friend, or proved false to the promise he made. List! "a blast from the Bugle"-it rolls o'er the plain,

And startles an echo from Georgia to Maine

From the Northern Light.

ORIGINAL PURCHASE OF THE ISLAND OF NEW YORK .- We furnish below to the readers of the Northern Light, an interesting and curious letter, recording among other important events, the purchase of the Island of Manhattan, two hundred and seventeen years ago, by the Dutch, from the Indians, for the sum of sixty guilders, or twenty-four dollars! The tract conveyed for this trifling sum contains 13,920 acres.

Hooghe Moghende Heeren, Hier is ghister 't schip' Wafen van Amsterdam ængekomen, en is den 23 September uyt Nieu Nederlandt gezylt uvt de rivier Mauritius. Rapporteren dat ons volk daer klocc is en vreedigh leven. hare vrouwen hebben ooc kindered aldaer gabaert; hebben tevlandt Manhattes van de Wilde voor de waarde van 60 guilden; is groot 11,000 morgen; Hebben der alle koren half Mey gezeyt en half Augusro gemayd. Daervan veynden de munsterkins van Zomer-Koren, als tarrew, rogge, garst, haver, boucweyt, knarizaet, boontjons en vlas P. SCHAGHEN.

Amsterdam, 5 Nov. 1626."

High and mighty Lords—Yesterday arrived the ship "The Arms of Amsterdam;" she sailed from the River Mauritius [Hudson] in the New Netherlands on 23 Sept. They report that our folk there are prosperous and live in peace; their women have borne children there already; they have purchased from the Indians for the sum of 60 guilders the Islland Manhattan, which is 11,000 morgen large. They have already sowed grain by the middle of May and reapt by the middle of August; samples of summer crops have come, such as wheat, rve, barley, oats, buckwheat, canary seed, beans and flax. P. SCHAGHEN.

Amsterdam, 5 Nov. 1626. A RARE CHARACTER .-- A correspondent of the

Lynn Washingtonian gives the following account of one of the Marblehead representatives: One person now living among them is worthy a passing notice-Samuel Chinn, one of their Representatives elected to the Legislature of Massachusetts. He is 35 years of age-a strong healthy man and to use this own tanguage-he has neither ache nor pain.' For the last ten years this man has lived on a simple vegetable diet, causing not the voice of mourning amoung the herds and flocks which graze peacefully upon the mountain side; and during the last four years he has lived on nothing—nothing but dry unground wheat and fruit. He makes his breakfast of fruit-the other two meals of wheat patronizing meither burrstone mills, nor French cooks.

Last year he was elected a delegate to the Wor cester Democratic State Convention, and with a true democratic spirit he filled his pocket with wheat, walked to Worcester in one day (a distance of 56 miles) attended the convention, and the next day returned home by the same democratic express, having patronized no hotels.

He is now ready to walk 75 miles in a day whenever interest or duty may require it.

The following is Mrs. Madison's letter, on receiving the vote of the House, entitling her to a seat on the floor:

" Permit me to thank you, gentlemen, as the Committee on the part of the House of Representatives, for the great gratification you have this day conferred upon me, by the delivery of the favor of that honororable body, allowing me a seat within its Hall. I shall ever be proud to recollect it as a token of their remembrance, collectively and individually, of one who has gone before us. D. P. MADISON. "Washington, January 9th, 1841."

Suspected Murder.-An affair occurred in Harpswell the past week which has occasioned considerable excitement in that vicinity. The circumstances as I learn are as follows: A young woman (unmarried) by the name of Curtis, about four weeks since became the mother of a fine healthy boy-but refused all the interrogations of the attending physician, Dr. Bliss, to acknowledge who was its father. The mother and child were doing well till a few days since, when Dr. B. administered medicine for a slight canker in the mouth. Immediately after taking the medicine the child was taken vomiting and lived but three or four hours. Suspicion of foul play was created, and the stomach and intestines of the child were examined by Dr. McKeen, who gave it as his opinion that arsenic had been taken by the child, and that its death was caused thereby. Dr. Bliss has been arrested on complaint of the Coroner, and an examination before a Justice of the Peace is to take place on Tuesday. Since the death of the child, the mother has on oath testified that Dr. Bliss was its father. Dr. B. is a married man, and since his residence in Harpswell, has sustained an irreproachable character; and if he is innocent, it is hoped that it may appear so on the investifiation.

CHARITY VS. TOBACCO.- A citizen of Cincinnati has inclosed forty dollars to the Trustees of the Township, to be distributed among the poor. This is the amount he estimates he has saved, by abstaining from the use of tobacco during the last four years, having been before that time an inveterate slave to the Indian weed. This is a double act of charity, first to the man himself, who is saved from the ill effects of a permicious habit, and secondly to the poor, who enjoy the amount saved from his own personal gratification. [Cincinnati paper.

A St. Louis paper tells a story of a disconsolate widower, who, on seeing the remains of his late wife lowered into the grave, exclaimed with tears in his eyes—" Well, I've lost hogs and I've lost cows, but I never had any thing cut me up like

The small pox is raging with much severity in many of the Western villages of Wisconsin, and is working its way Eastward toward Madison, the seat of Government. In Platteville, at the latest dates, there were twenty-two cases.
